PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MADISON . . . The Department of Regulation and Licensing announced that the following disciplinary orders were issued in April 2004.

Anne Allen-Heath, Beloit – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing Suspended the license of Anne Allen-Heath for a period of five years. Allen-Heath may apply for a stay of suspension upon compliance with specific limitations. Allen-Heath diverted morphine, a controlled substance, from two separate employers for her personal use. She was also ordered to pay $250 in costs. [LS0404221NUR]

Elizabeth Hadlich, Cumberland – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing granted Elizabeth Hadlich a suspended license with an initial 3 month stay of suspension upon compliance with specific limitations. Hadlich was previously disciplined in Minnesota for diverting narcotics from her employer for her personal use. She has since remained compliant with all limitations of the Minnesota order. [LS0404228NUR]

Marjorie Hinds, Sheboygan – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing accepted the surrender of Marjorie Hinds license and ordered her to pay $500 in costs. Hinds had participated in the Department's Impaired Professionals Program but she was dismissed from the IPP program based upon substantial violations of her participation agreement. [LS0404222NUR]

Joyline Hornburg, Greenfield – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing reprimanded Joyline Hornburg, ordered her to pay $300 in costs, and to complete certain education. Hornburg failed to observe and record a patient's post-operative level of pain as one of the patient's conditions, signs and symptoms. [LS0312221NUR]

Craig Koller, Oshkosh – Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing accepted the voluntary surrender of Craig Koller's Private Security Permit. Koller was convicted in Winnebago County of four counts of Felony 2nd Degree Sexual Assault of Child and two counts of Felony Possession of Child Pornography. Koller failed to inform the Department of the convictions. [LS0404265RSG]

Shirley Limberg, Woodruff – Clinical Social Worker. The Social Worker Section of the Marriage and Family Therapy, Professional Counseling and Social Work Examining Board reprimanded Shirley Limberg and ordered completion of continuing education on professional boundaries between social workers and clients. Limberg failed to avoid a dual relationship when a client was placed under Limberg's supervision as an intern. [LS0404213SOC]

Frances Lockard, Milwaukee – Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Frances Lockard's temporary private security permit after receiving information that Lockard had been convicted of a felony regarding delivery of a controlled substance. [LS0404052RAL]

John Rigby, Spring Green – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing reprimanded John Rigby and ordered him to pay $200 in costs. Rigby failed to follow his employer's policy which requires an accounting of all controlled substances when a shift change occurs. The nurse on duty after Rigby discovered 39 missing Vicodin tablets. [LS0404223NUR]

Bryan Roemer, Brandon – Respiratory Care Practitioner. Following a hearing, the Medical Examining Board revoked the license of Bryan Roemer. Roemer was found guilty on three occasions based on allegations of obtaining prescription drugs by passing forged prescriptions at pharmacies. Roemer also attempted to purchase Vicodin from a subordinate employee who was prescribed the controlled substance. [LS0309241MED]

Jane Saggau, Horicon – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing accepted the surrender of Jane Saggau's license. Saggau diverted controlled substances from her employer for her personal use, which resulted in a conviction of obtaining a controlled substance by fraud. [LS0404224NUR]

Anthony Smith, Milwaukee – Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing accepted the surrender of Anthony Smith's Private Security Permit. In August, 2002, when applying for a renewal of his permit, Smith answered "no" to an application question asking if he had any convictions or charges pending against him. Smith had a criminal complaint against him in Milwaukee County at the time of his renewal and was later convicted on October 7, 2002, of two misdemeanor charges of Disorderly Conduct. Smith failed to inform the Department of these convictions until October 18, 2002. [LS0404266RSG]

Heidi Soyk, Fond du Lac – Social Worker. The Social Worker Section of the Marriage and Family Therapy, Professional Counseling and Social Work Examining Board suspended Heidi Soyk for an indefinite period of time and ordered her to pay $500 in costs. Soyk was found stealing money from co-workers while on duty. [LS0404214SOC]

Gurgyan Virk, Milwaukee – Veterinary Medicine. The Veterinary Examining Board suspended the license of Gurgyan for an indefinite period of time, and granted an initial stay of suspension as long as Virk complies with specific limitations, including: Virk must provide documentation to the Board that certain supplies and equipment are being maintained; he must complete education programs, pass an assessment of his overall veterinary skills relating to cats; and limit his practice to feline veterinary medicine only. Virk was also ordered to pay $2,122.99 in costs. [LS0404282VET]

Wackenhut Corporation, Milwaukee – Private Detective Agency. The Department of Regulation and Licensing reprimanded Wackenhut Corporation and ordered $1,300 in costs. Wackenhut allowed two employees without a license to work as private security guards, carrying a firearm as part of their duties. [LS0404171RAL]

Richard Wang, Milwaukee – Physician and Surgeon. The Medical Examining Board Limited the license of Richard Wang based upon its finding that Wang was “under investigation for injudicious prescribing of controlled substances and for up coding”. The Board ordered Wang to complete an education program in recordkeeping through UW-CME; refrain from ordering, prescribing, dispensing, supplying, or obtaining controlled substances or tramadol or carisoprodol for any patient; refrain from holding any DEA registration; and retain a person certified by the American Academy of Professional Coders to review all claims for third party payment before submission. The board also imposed $5,000 in costs. [LS0404212MED]

Brian Williams, Grafton – Licensed Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing reprimanded Brian Williams and limited his license by ordering continuing education. After several occasions of residents refusing pills prescribed for them, Williams placed the pills in his pocket and proceeded to take them home, which later resulted in a conviction. The Board order requires Williams to disclose his conviction to present and prospective employers. Williams was also ordered to pay $1,000 in costs. [LS0401141NUR]

Kurt Zaeske, Wauwatosa – Veterinary Medicine. The Veterinary Examining Board limited Kurt Zaeske’s license and ordered him to pay $2,400 in costs. Zaeske performed a physical examination of a cat and determined a tranquilizer would be required prior to grooming. The cat was an anesthetic risk due to its history, current weight and possibility of underlying disease. Zaeske failed to discuss the risks and benefits of administering a tranquilizer with the owner prior to administration. After administering a tranquilizer reversing agent, Zaeske observed the cat for 5 minutes before releasing the cat to the owners. Zaeske failed to provide adequate discharge instructions. [LS0312304VET]
